

ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND PUBLIC FACILITIES

2008 REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION FORUM

The Regional Transportation Forum is a unique opportunity for primary stakeholders in the region's transportation network to gather and participate in meaningful discussions with Department and other agency officials regarding critical issues that will affect the delivery of transportation programs to their communities. Please join in the discussion with other community leaders and get informed about the latest in funding projections, new programs that could provide innovative approaches to bridging the gap between needs and available funding, and how your community can play even more critical roles in advancing projects and meeting needs important to you.

- Hear the latest status of the Highway Trust Fund
- Learn about the Aviation Trust Fund projections
- Know more about DOT's 2030 Plan to address shortfalls
- Break-out availability with key DOT personnel
- Informational "take-aways" on projects and programs
- Hands-on interaction with state and federal directors

Wednesday, October 22, 2008
8:30 am to 5:00 pm

Egan Convention Center
Anchorage, Alaska
